

Tobyn Smith

tobynsmith@uga.edu | (706) 240-4258 | linkedin.com/in/tobynsmith | github.com/tobyn-smith

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Graduate student in International Policy (Energy Security) with expertise in geopolitics and supply-chain risk, and applied skills in geospatial analysis. Track record delivering policy research and risk intelligence for industry and institutional audiences.

EDUCATION

University of Georgia Master of Arts in International Policy, Concentration: Energy Security.	Athens, GA May 2027 (expected)
University of Georgia Bachelor of Arts in International Relations. GPA: 3.6.	Athens, GA May 2026

EXPERIENCE

Research Intern Crowdwave	May 2026 – Present New York, NY
- Investigate political, ethical, and methodological implications of AI-driven audience simulation for opinion and survey design. - Evaluate 50+ simulated cohorts using CPI scoring, assessing persuasion strength and alignment with human benchmarks.
Research Assistant ArchPal (University AI Assistant)	November 2025 – Present Athens, GA
- Advise on UX, pedagogical features, and student-facing functionality for a university-wide AI assistant. - Authored guidance on academic integrity, privacy, and ethical use; contributed to AWS architecture decisions.
Global Intelligence Intern, Supply Chains British Standards Institution (BSI)	May 2025 – August 2025 Atlanta, GA
- Synthesised supply-chain risk intelligence on the U.S. and Mexico for clients, including Fortune 500 firms. - Produced 50+ heatmaps, graphs, and reports informing client risk-mitigation decisions.

PROJECTS

OSINT Grid Resilience Exposure Index Python, R, GIS	May 2026 – Present
Built a Python pipeline scoring all 50 U.S. states on grid resilience exposure using EIA open data, published as an interactive site with choropleth maps and documented methodology.
Baltic Energy Transit Risk R, GIS	June 2026 – Present
Mapped and scored geopolitical exposure of Baltic Sea LNG terminals and subsea corridors in R (sf), published as a Quarto site with interactive maps via GitHub Actions.

ACTIVITIES & LEADERSHIP

Office of Academic Honesty Panelist and Chair	September 2024 – Present
International Student Advisory Board Board Member	September 2024 – May 2026
Loch Johnson Society Senior Advisor	January 2024 – May 2026
Georgia Political Review Columnist and Operations Director	February 2024 – December 2025

AWARDS & HONORS

- UGA International Out-of-State Tuition Waiver Award
- UK Duke of Edinburgh Bronze Award

SKILLS

Technical Skills: Python, R, GIS

MEMBERSHIPS

- Institute of Nuclear Materials Management
- Energy Institute
- Energy Terminal